

Contents

Sweden and its People	6
The Population Pyramid	8
Territorial Divisions	12
Geographic Distribution	14
Population density	14
The Swedish kommuns	15
Population Distribution	18
Population density zones	29
The Pattern of Settlement in Rural Areas	32
Geographic Curiosities	34
A 200-year Perspective	36
Unique Population Statistics	36
Changes in Density	37
Old Swedish Population Maps	40
The Demographic Components	44
Concern about Population Development	47
Fertility	48
Mortality	52
Causes of Death	54
Today's Towns and Urban Areas	56
Towns – the Great Agglomerations	58
Stockholm, the Capital	60
Göteborg – the Centre of Western Sweden	64
Malmö – the Third Largest Town in Sweden	66
Sundsvall – a Large Town	68
Lindesberg – One of Sweden's 100 Towns	69
Small Towns	70
Villages	72
Central-Place Policies	74
Mobility	76
The Time-Geographic Approach	76
Geographic Mobility without Moving House	78
Local Moves	80
Regional Migration	82
Stayers	84
The Population Clock – a Demographic Diagram in Time	86
		Migration creates an unequal distribution of age	88
		Migration creates an unequal sex-ratio	90
		International Movement	92
		Urbanisation	96
		The remaining rural areas	98
		Resources	100
		Environmental Resources	100
		Individual Resources	101
		Power and Influence	116
		Ideas about Sharing Power	116
		Influence by Means of Political Elections	118
		The Moderate Party	120
		The Liberal Party	122
		The Centre Party	124
		The Social Democratic Party	126
		The Left Party	128
		The Environmental Party – the Greens	130
		The Christian Democrat Party – KdS	131
		The Power Blocs in National Politics	132
		The Geography of Religion	136
		Ways of Living Together	138
		Marriage	140
		Separation	142
		The Children	143
		Types of Households	144
		A Cultural Mix	146
		Early Ethnic Minorities	146
		Sweden Integrates with the World	148
		The New Minorities	150
		The Future	158
		Increasing Global Population	158
		Europe	161
		Forecasting Methods	164
		The Future of the Regions	166
		A Forecast for the Total Population in 2025	166
		Population Forecasts for Small Districts	168
		Map of Urban Areas in Sweden	170