

Contents

Foreword Pierrette Schlettwein	7
Introduction Dag Henrichsen and Giorgio Miescher	9
Deconstructing the past, reconstructing the future. Knowledge workers in Southern Africa Nahas Angula	11
Libraries and Archives. Changing Traditions and New Perspectives
Building a new Namibiana Library in independent Namibia Marianne Gei-khoibes	15
Changing traditions and new challenges at the School of Oriental and African Studies Barbara Turfan	23
New challenges, new opportunities. “Memory of the world” and information technology in the Namibian context Werner Hillebrecht	35
The potential of co-operative projects by Southern African, European and American librarians Phyllis Bischof	43
Some reflections on archives in an African church and NGO setting Paul Jenkins	53
The Basler Afrika Bibliographien and Carl Schlettwein
The periphery as the heart of the matter. Contextualising Namibia at the Basler Afrika Bibliographien Dag Henrichsen	65
Carl Schlettwein as author. With a bibliography Sonia Abun-Nasr and Susanne Hubler	79
The Basler Geomethodische Colloquium (BGC), 1975-1995 Hartmut Leser	85

Researching Old and New Collections

Bibliophilia in South Africa. Revisiting the private Brenthurst Library collection Marcelle Weiner	93
The Swiss Mission Archives, identity and political consciousness in southern Mozambique (1930 – 1974) Teresa Cruz e Silva	115
Photography and history. The photo collections of the Basler Afrika Bibliographien Regula Iselin	125
The records of the Swiss Federal Archives on the relationship between Switzerland and South Africa after 1945 Simone Chiquet and Guido Koller	131
Posters as source. Collecting and researching posters at the Basler Afrika Bibliographien Giorgio Miescher	137
Notes	161
Bibliography	173
Photographic acknowledgements	181
List of abbreviations	183
The authors	185
Index	187

