

| | |
|--|----|
| Foreword and basic considerations | 6 |
| Unity of spirit and form | 6 |
| Architectural independence | 6 |
| “Topos” means “arising from a specific place” | 7 |
| Grown images | 8 |
| Paul Klee as a contemporary | 9 |
| From wave to emblem | 9 |
| Metamorphosis as a building concept | 10 |
| Zentrum Paul Klee, by Andreas Marti | 14 |
| Excerpts from letters by Renzo Piano 1998 | 16 |
| The topos | 23 |
| The entry zone | 39 |
| The interior space | 55 |
| The spatial structure of the Zentrum Paul Klee | 70 |
| The spatial function of the three hills | 71 |
| Temporary exhibition | 74 |
| Administration | 76 |
| Auditorium | 78 |
| Picture storage room | 80 |
| Children’s museum | 82 |
| Restaurant | 84 |
| Epilogue and acknowledgements | 86 |
| Project team | 87 |
| Biography of Renzo Piano | 88 |
| Annex: | |
| Sculpture park at the Zentrum Paul Klee, 1998–2004 | 89 |