

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction.....	ix
Texts.....	x
1. “An Gott” .....	1
(hymn for four solo voices and piano accompaniment, words by Friedrich Wilhelm Gubitz) (1814)
2. Sieben Geistliche Gesänge .....	15
(four-part choral odes, words by Friedrich Gottlieb Klopstock) (1812, revised 1841 with French translation as Sept Chants Religieux imités de Klopstock par M. Légouvé, mis en musique à quatre voix avec acct. de piano par G. Meyerbeer )
1) Morgenlied .....	16
2) Dem Dreieinigkeit .....	24
3) Vorbereitung zum Gottesdienst .....	30
4) Danklied .....	38
5) Nach dem Abendmahl .....	48
6) Wach’ auf, mein Herz .....	60
7) Jesus Christus wir sind hier .....	69
3. Psalm 91 .....	75
(“Qui in manu Dei requiescit”) (for four soloists and double chorus a cappella ) (1853) (also known as “Trost in Sterbengefahr”/ “He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High”)
4. Pater Noster .....	107
(four-part a cappella offertorium) (1857)
5. “Aspiration” .....	113
Cantique tiré de l’imitation de Jésus Christ (canticle, words by Pierre Corneille, after Thomas à Kempis, “Qui sequitur me, non ambulat in tenebris”) (for three sopranos, two tenors, bass solo, and organ)(1859) (also known Busslied or penitential song in the German translation by Ludwig Rellstab, with instrumental praeludium ) (1862-3)	