

Contents

Foreword by Martin Rumscheidt | vii

Preface | xi

List of Abbreviations | xv

Introduction | 1

Section I: Setting the Scene

- 1 Facing the Tremendum (I): The Shoah and Modern Jewish Thought | 15
- 2 Facing the Tremendum (II): The Shoah and Modern Christian Thought | 41

Section II: Engaging with Barth

- 3 The Barthian Barrier: Karl Barth's Natural Theological Nein! to the Holocaust | 65
 - 4 Shoah as Witness? The Holocaust as a Testifying Event | 90
 - 5 Barth and Berkovits: The Dialectics of Revelation and the Hester Panim | 115
 - 6 The Solidarity of Crucified Suffering | 137
- Conclusion: The Barthian Challenge to Post-Holocaust Theology—A Caution Against Saying Too Much | 162

Bibliography | 169

Name Index | 179

Subject Index | 183