

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: Behold, the social entrepreneur	1
1 The man who invented a chicken: Introducing a global generation of entrepreneurial social activists	13
2 Raising the voices of girl-children: Pyramids, incubators and the fight for equality	46
3 The incredible rise of co-operatives: Conscious consumption... slow fashion... ethical exploration... and more...	64
4 How do you know you are making a difference? The metrics and measures that keep the social entrepreneur on-mission	84
5 A trip to the favela: The death and life of traditional charity	108
6 Inside the social enterprise city: How change happens, locally and globally	137
7 The bull market of the greater good: Fact, fiction and the rise of big-money activism	160
8 The digital device in the wall: #peoplepower meets the block-chain	200
9 Reclaiming the heart of government: Power in the age of the moral marketplace	215
Conclusion: Creating a new kind of capitalism	245
Notes and references	255
Index	267