

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction	1
Jane Aaron
1. Problems of Authorship and Attribution: The Welsh-language Women's Canon Before 1800	10
Cathryn A. Charnell-White
2. Cambrian Bards and Antiquarian Romantics: Anglophone Women Poets from Eighteenth-Century Wales	30
Sarah Prescott
3. "Local and Contemporary": Reception, Community and the Poetry of Ann Julia Hatton ("Ann of Swansea")	48
Elizabeth Edwards
4. "At Once Illogical and Unfair": Jane Williams (Ysgafell) and the Government Report on Education in Mid Nineteenth-Century Wales	63
Gwyneth Tyson Roberts
5. Adapting the Risorgimento: Ideas of Liberal Nationhood in L. M. Spooner's Country Landlords (1860)	78
Rita Singer
6. "Our Poor Land of Wales": National Identity and National Heroism in Women's Historical Fictions	94
Diana Wallace
7. Welsh Women's Industrial Fiction 1880–1910	111
Kirsti Bohata and Alexandra Jones
8. Gwyneth Vaughan, Eluned Morgan and the Emancipation of Welsh Women	128
Rosanne Reeves and Jane Aaron
Index	145