

CONTENTS

Introduction 6

Glossary 12

First part    The Ga – a people and their changing society

History 18

The first settlers / European influence from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century /
Military developments in Ghana in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries /
British rule and its consequences for indigenous authorities / Ghana after independence:
the Ga as an ethnic minority

Society 26

Social organisation / Distribution of offices / Military and political organisation

The Ga and Christianity 36

The Basle Mission / Christianity and the Ga religion today

The kpele cult 39

Binary oppositions and dualism / Sacred buildings / Gods and priests /
Hewale / Performative body art / Religion and magic / Possession cults – Spiritual metamorphosis / The performative arts as offerings

Second part    The palanquins of the Ga

On the trail of an enigmatic art form 70

Art and aesthetics in Africa / The 'foreign' and 'indigenous' art of the Ga /
Dealing with 'foreign' art

Traditional burial rites 90

The history of amamprobi burials / The coffin requirement and its consequences /
Burial rituals for the «Big Men» / On the connection between initiation and burial /
The liminal transitional phase: a spiritual state of war / Four amamprobi burials in detail

Diagram 129

Origin and historical background of the figurative palanquins 144

Dissemination / Innovation / Differentiation / The spiritual power of the images

The search for figurative palanquins 150

Photographic documents / A ground-breaking discovery /
On the use of figurative palanquins

Why figurative palanquins are rarely used by the Ga today 180

On the meaning of the figurative palanquins 188

Okadi palanquins as sacred objects / Innovation as a cultural practice / A momentous error

Appendix    Acknowledgements 209

Written sources used for this text 210

Endnotes 214

Bibliography 223

Picture credits / List of artists 229