

○ Contents

Acknowledgments and Dedication of the Classic Edition	ix
Introduction to the Classic Edition	xi
Preface	xxi
1. An External Perspective on Organizations	1
Overview	2
Internal versus External Perspectives on Organizations	6
Basic Concepts for a Contextual Perspective	10
The Role of Management	16
Summary	19
2. Organization and Social Context Defined	23
Interest Groups and Coalitions: Organizations as Markets for Influence and Control	24
Competing Demands	27
Organizational Boundaries and the Partial Inclusion of Participants	29
Organizational Effectiveness	33
Summary	36
3. Social Control of Organizations	39
Interdependence	40
The Social Control of Organizational Choice	43
Empirical Examinations of Interorganizational Influence	54
Summary	59

4. The Organizational Environment and How It Is Known	62
Dimensions of the Environment	63
The Interconnectedness of Organizations	69
The Enactment Process—How Environments Are Known	70
Determinants of the Enactment Process	74
Problems in Environmental Enactment	78
The Assessment of External Demands	84
Summary	88
5. Managing Organizational Demands: Adaptation and Avoidance	92
An Environment of Conflicting Interests	93
Organizational Compliance	94
Avoiding Influence as an Organizational Response	95
Managing the Conditions of Social Control	97
Managing and Avoiding Dependence	106
Summary	110
6. Altering Organizational Interdependence: Controlling
the Context of Control	113
Using Merger to Cope with Interdependence	114
Patterns of Vertical Mergers	115
Mergers Within the Same Industry: Reducing Competitive Uncertainty	123
Diversification: Determining Interorganizational Dependence	126
Organizational Growth	131
Summary	139
7. The Negotiated Environment: Establishing Collective
Structures of Interorganizational Action	143
Normative Coordination of Interdependence	147
Interorganizational Cooperation: The Case of Joint Ventures	152
Patterns of Joint Venture Activity	157
Cooptation: The Use of Interlocking Boards of Directors	161
Hospital Boards of Directors	170
Organized Coordination of Interdependence:
Associations, Coalitions, and Cartels	175
Summary	182
8. The Created Environment: Controlling Interdependence
Through Law and Social Sanction	188
Rationalization of Political Choice	191
Organizational Legitimacy	193

Regulation: State Management of the Economic Environment	202
The Organization as a Political Actor	213
Summary	222
9. Executive Succession: A Mechanism for Environmental Effects	225
A Model of Environmental Effects	228
Organizational Context and Intraorganizational Power	230
Executive Succession and Organizational Power	236
Executive Discretion and Organizational Decision Making	244
Executive Recruitment and Interfirm Coordination	247
Summary	252
10. The Design and Management of Externally Controlled Organizations	257
A Resource Dependence Perspective	258
Three Managerial Roles	262
Designing Externally Controlled Organizations	268
Designing Organizational Environments	278
Organizational Futures	281
 Index	289