

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 Introduction: Analysing Disability	1
Grass-roots mobilization	2
Sociological perspectives	4
A brief word on terminology	11
Overview of the book	11
2 Competing Models and Approaches	14
Socio-historical perspectives	14
The individual or medical model of 'disability'	18
Looking beyond individual solutions	24
The social model of disability	29
The biopsychosocial model of disability	36
Review	41
3 Sociological Approaches to Chronic Illness and Disability	43
Functionalism, Parsons and the sick role	43
Labelling perspectives and stigmatization	45
Negotiated and interpretative accounts	51
Medical and professional dominance	56
Towards a political economy of medicine and sickness	63
Embodiment and post-structuralism	66
Review	69
4 Theories of Disability	71
Welfarism and its discontents	72
Theories of disability and oppression	77
Disability and social divisions	85
Post-modernism: back to the future?	90
Review	97

5	Social Exclusion and Disabling Barriers	98
	Disability policy and the welfare state	99
	Education	104
	Financial circumstances	108
	Employment	112
	The built environment, housing and transport	117
	Leisure and social participation	122
	Review	125
6	Routes to Independent Living	127
	The critique of residential institutions	128
	Policy directions towards independence	133
	Care or independence?	139
	User-led organizations: Centres for Independent Living	142
	Direct payments	146
	Service user involvement	150
	Review	154
7	Politics and Disability Politics	156
	Politics and disabled people	157
	Civil rights and legislation	165
	A new social movement?	174
	Identity politics	181
	Review	183
8	Culture, the Media and Identity	185
	Sociological approaches to culture	186
	Cultural representations of disability	187
	Cultural studies approaches	195
	Towards a disability culture?	202
	Review	211
9	Disability and the Right to Life	213
	Ethics, euthanasia and rights	213
	Disability and eugenics	221
	Disability and biotechnology	226
	Life and death decisions	229
	Review	236
10	Disability and Development: Global Perspectives	239
	Disability, industrialization and globalization	239
	Comparative perspectives on impairment	242
	Poverty, disability and social exclusion	249
	Internationalization of disability policy	254

Disability activism: mobilizing for change	259
Review	265
References	267
Index	322