

Contents

Section I	Choice and the State	1
	Half-Hidden or Half-Open? Scholarly Research on Soviet Homosexuals in Contemporary Russia	3
	Irina Roldugina
	Transgender, Transition, and Dilemma of Choice in Contemporary Ukraine	23
	Nadzeja Husakouskaya
	From the Maidan to the Donbas: The Limitations on Choice for Women in Ukraine	47
	Olesya Khromeychuk
Section II	Choice and Culture	79
	Narrating the Gender Order: Why Do Older Single Women in Russia Say That They Do Not Want to Be in Relationships with Men?	81
	Anna Shadrina

Gender and Choice Among Russia's Upper Class Elisabeth Schimpfössl	109
Choosing Whether to Have Children: A Netnographic Study of Women's Attitudes Towards Childbirth and the Family in Post-Soviet Russia Lynne Attwood and Olga Isupova	133
Section III Choice and Modernity	159
Responsible Motherhood, Practices of Reproductive Choice and Class Construction in Contemporary Russia Anna Temkina and Elena Zdravomyslova	161
Between Militarism and Antimilitarism: 'Masculine' Choice in Post-Soviet Russia Marina Yusupova	187
Bibliography	217
Index	241