

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments  | vii |
| Introduction   | ix  |
| Msia Kibona Clark and Mickie Mwanzia Koster   |     |
| I: "Social Ills": Coming from Behind the Microphone to Effect Reform in Africa  |     |
| 1 Hip Hop Halisi: Continuities of Heroism on the African Political LandscapeCaroline Mose   | 3   |
| 2 Building Our Nation: Senegalese Hip Hop Artists as Agents of Social and Political ChangeSheba Lo                                | 27  |
| 3 Speaking Truth to Power: Hip Hop and the African AwakeningAmentahru Wahlrab   | 49  |
| 4 Malian Hip Hop: Social Engagement through MusicAmkoullél L'enfant Peulh   | 65  |
| II: "The Dusty Foot Philosopher": Hip Hop Voices on Social Change in Africa   |     |
| 5 How Hip Hop Impacts Social Change in AfricaMalle Marxist  | 70  |
| 6 Redefining the Struggle: Remembering the Mau Mau through Hip Hop MusicMich Nyawalo  | 72  |
| 7 Hip Hop, Youth Activism, and the Dilemma of Colored Identity in South AfricaShaheen Ariefdien and Rico Chapman                  | 94  |
| 8 Beyond Y'en A Marre: Pikine's Hip Hop Youth Say "Enough is Enough" and Pave the Way for Continuous Social ChangeAsligul Berktaý | 112 |
| 9 Gender Representations among Tanzanian Female EmceesMsia Kibona Clark   | 144 |

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 10  | Hip Hop and Social Change in UgandaSlim MC   | 170 |
| III: "Adjuma": Hip Hop's Transformation of the Urban Space in Africa |   |     |
| 11  | Tanzanian MCs vs. Social DiscourseMejah Mbuya  | 174 |
| 12  | From the Great Island to the African Continent through the Western World: Itineraries of a "Return to the Origins" through Hip Hop Music in Madagascar (2000–2011)Klara Boyer-Rossol | 178 |
| 13  | The Muscapes of a Country in Transition: Cultural Identity, Youth Agency, the Emergent Hip Hop Culture, and the Quest for Socio-Political Change in Sierra LeoneJohn Idriss Lahai    | 198 |
| 14  | Hip Hop and Sheng in Nairobi: Creating Identity Markers and Expressing a LifestyleKatharina Greven   | 226 |
|   | Afterword: Reflections on Ni Wakati : Hip Hop and RevolutionKamau Ngigi   | 258 |
|   | Appendix: Le Hip Hop malien ou l'engagement social à travers l'artAmkoullel L'enfant Peulh   | 266 |
|   | Index   | 270 |
|   | About the Authors   | 278 |