

CONTENTS

List of tables	ix
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: The integrity of history	1
PART I
Kill switch	7
1 Historians killed for political reasons	9
2 Archivists killed for political reasons	28
3 Public attacks of political leaders on historians	41
4 Iconoclastic breaks with the past	61
5 Fake news—the latest threat?	77
PART II
Fragile freedom	89
6 The subversive power of historical analogies	91
7 Resistance to the censorship of history	119

Epilogue: Embers of courage	153
Provisional memorial for history producers killed for political reasons (from ancient times to 2017)	155
Appendix 1: Books and legal cases regarding assassinated history producers	165
Appendix 2: Political figures with a historian's background indicted by international tribunals	167
Appendix 3: Posthumous trials against heads of state and government	169
Concise bibliography	173
Index	175