

6 Creating space for looking

THE COLLECTION. A STORY IN 18 CHAPTERS

32 When current events become history
Acquisitions 1949–64/65

40 Keeping abreast of the times
The modern classics in the collection

50 From Post-Cubism, through Colour-Field Painting to Fundamental Painting
Jeune Peinture and post-war abstraction

58 Phantasmagoria, commodity and reproduction
Pop Art, Nouveau Réalisme, Nieuwe Visie and Hyperrealism

76 Formalism and Self-reflection
Minimal Art and Conceptual Art

88 The poetry of mechanics
Panamarenko

96 The museum as a mussel
Marcel Broodthaers

104 Art as spiritual alchemy versus the theory of stylelessness
Joseph Beuys and Oswald Oberhuber

114 The breakthrough of Land Art and Arte Povera
Art in Europe after 1968

124 Contemporary Belgian Art in the seventies and eighties
Insight / Overview – Overview / Insight

134 Matter, politics and poetry
Post-Minimalist trends in Europe

142 Playground and visual therapy
New horizons in sculpture

154 The Ugly Duckling and other fairy-tales
Meanwhile in Belgium

164 What's to happen to painting?
The eighties and nineties

174 Towards globalisation
Opting for cultural diversity

184 The immateriality of the electronic image versus the poetry of everyday reality
About Documenta IX

206 Mobile homes and mental architecture
International trends in the collection

216 A house without walls
This is the Show...

238 Checklist

264 List of exhibitions

269 Index