

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	viii
Introduction
Alain Chatriot, Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel and Matthew Hilton	1
Part 1 Early Consumer Activism	19
1 'Through the Medium of Their Pockets': Sabbatarianism, Free Produce, Non Intercourse and the Significance of 'Early Modern' Consumer Activism Lawrence B. Glickman	21
2 The Moral Expertise of the British Consumer, c. 1900: A Debate between the Christian Social Union and the Webbs Julien Vincent	37
3 Consumers' Leagues in France: A Transatlantic Perspective Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel	53
Part 2 Consumer Expertise in War and Peace	71
4 Educating Consumers, Representing Consumers: Reforming the Marketplace through Scientific Expertise at the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, 1923-1940 Carolyn M. Goldstein	73
5 The Enemy Within: Food, Nutrition Experts and Consumers in French-Speaking Switzerland, 1900-1946 Joëlle Droux	89
6 Shopping for an 'Economic Miracle': Gendered Politics of Consumer Citizenship in Divided Germany Katherine Pence	105

Part 3	Consumers in the Society of Consumption	121
7	Consumers' Associations and the State: Protection and Defence of the Consumer in France, 1950-2000 Alain Chatriot	123
8	Shopping for the 'People's Home': Consumer Planning in Norway and Sweden after the Second World War Iselin Theien	137
9	The Entrepreneurial Ethic and the Spirit of Consumerism: Finances and Strategy in the US Consumer Movement Robert N. Mayer	151
10	Living in the City Differently: The Birth of New Expertise in France in the 1960s and 1970s Odile Join-Lambert and Yves Lochard	167
11	The Organised Consumer Movement since 1945 Matthew Hilton	187
	Index	205