

CONTENTS

---

List of maps	ix
List of graphs and figures	x
List of tables and genealogical tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xii

Introduction: The expansion of Europe	1
---------------------------------------	---

Part I The history of the European states, 1250–1500: Countries and regions

1 The British Isles and Ireland
1.1 England: The emergence of a national kingdom	21
1.2 The rise of parliament	27
1.3 Agriculture and the expansion of trade	31
1.4 Society	35
1.5 The emergence of an English cultural sphere	38
1.6 Ireland	41
1.7 Scotland	45
2 France
2.1 A European power in the making	49
2.2 Taxation and representative bodies	58
2.3 Economic dynamism in the late Middle Ages	61
2.4 A regionalised society	65
2.5 Languages and cultural production	71
3 The Iberian Peninsula
3.1 The Reconquista and the consolidation of monarchical rule	79
3.2 The participation of the estates and resistance to royal authority	89
3.3 The economy between stagnation and recovery	91
3.4 Maritime expansion	94
3.5 The society of estates and multi-ethnicity	97
3.6 Regional and national culture	104
3.7 Portugal	110
3.8 The power of the estates and centralisation in Portugal	112
3.9 Long-distance trade and the beginnings of colonial expansion	113
3.10 A multi-ethnic society	118
3.11 Introducing a new world	120

4 Italy
4.1 From urban network to equilibrium of states	124
4.2 Republics and princely states	133
4.3 Economic ascendancy	137
4.4 Clerics and the urban middle classes	142
4.5 Renaissance art	145
4.6 The model of Italian literature	151
4.7 Secular polyphony and the reception of the ars nova	154
5 The Holy Roman Empire
5.1 Kings and dynasties	159
5.2 The empire and the estates	164
5.3 Economic advances	172
5.4 Society	177
5.5 Urban society	179
5.6 Rural society	182
5.7 Culture and humanism north of the Alps	184
5.8 Art	190
5.9 The Swiss Confederacy	193
5.10 The communal principle and federal structures	196
5.11 The Alpine economy	197
5.12 The German Hansa	199
5.13 The rise of the Burgundian Netherlands	208
5.14 Counts and cities	212
5.15 A trade hub	215
5.16 Burgundian culture	216
6 East-central Europe
6.1 Territorial reorganisation	224
6.2 The path to the aristocratic republic	237
6.3 Population, settlement and integration into the European division of labour	242
6.4 Aristocratic society in east-central Europe	250
6.5 Multicultural reality in east-central Europe	258
7 South-east Europe
7.1 The fall of the Byzantine Empire	271
7.2 Economic and demographic decline	275
7.3 Cultural exchange	277
7.4 Ottoman expansion in the Balkans	279

8	Russia
8.1	The Mongol invasion and Mongol rule in Russia	286
8.2	The rise of Muscovy	288
8.3	Integration into the European system of long-distance trade	297
8.4	Aristocratic society	299
8.5	The power of the princes and the veche	303
8.6	Icon painting and architecture	304
9	Scandinavia
9.1	The path to union	309
9.2	Councils of the realm and offices	322
9.3	Losses of population and settlements	326
9.4	Land distribution and economic structures	329
9.5	Nobles and peasants	332
9.6	Nordic literature and culture	338
	Part II Theme: Developmental tendencies in the state, the economy, society and culture
10	State and constitution
10.1	Forms of political representation	347
10.2	Administration	352
10.3	Warfare	355
11	The economy
11.1	The feudal system and agrarian production	365
11.2	The trades and manufacturing	369
11.3	The expansion of trade	373
11.4	Money and currency	375
11.5	Credit and banking	377
12	Society
12.1	Divine ordo	383
12.2	The world of the nobility	383
12.3	Rural society	387
12.4	Urban society	390
12.5	Revolts	396
13	Culture and religion
13.1	Humanism	400
13.2	The Renaissance	403
13.3	Universities	406
13.4	The Church	410

Part III Debates and research problems

14 The ‘crisis of the late Middle Ages’	423
15 Political integration	435
16 The court	440
17 The Renaissance and humanism	445
18 Cultural transfer studies	454
 Timeline	 461
Bibliography	465
Index	531