

Fennimore and Gerda

Two episodes from the life of Niels Lyhne in eleven pictures after the novel by J.P. Jacobsen

Libretto: Frederick Delius

|                                           |                               |  |                                 |
|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|---------------------------------|
| Fennimore .....                           |                               |  | Randi Stene                     |
| Gerda .....                               |                               |  | Judith Howarth                  |
| Niels Lyhne                               | } cousins, Claudi's nephews { |  | Peter Coleman-Wright            |
| Erik Refstrup                             |                               |  | Mark Tucker                     |
| Consul Claudi                             | } Fennimore's parents {       |  | Aage Haugland                   |
| Mrs Claudi                                |                               |  | Annette Simonsen                |
| A Sportsman                               | } Erik's boon-companions {    |  | Michael W. Hansen               |
| A Town Councillor                         |                               |  | Bo Anker Hansen                 |
| A Tutor                                   |                               |  | Finn Bielenberg                 |
| A Distiller                               |                               |  | Peter Fog                       |
| Councillor Skinnerup, Gerda's father..... |                               |  | Stefan Cushion                  |
| Ingrid                                    | } his daughters {             |  | Susse Lillesø                   |
| Lila                                      |                               |  | Marianne Lund                   |
| Marit                                     |                               |  | Helle Charlotte Pedersen        |
| A Voice across the Water.....             |                               |  | Gert Henning-Jensen             |
| A Lady.....                               |                               |  | Hedwig Rummel                   |
| Maidservants .....                        |                               |  | Christa Brix · Eva Bruun Hansen |

Danish National Radio Choir

Danish National Radio Symphony Orchestra

Richard Hickox