

Contents

Author's Preface to the Third Edition	ix
Author's Preface to the Second Edition	xv
Author's Preface	xix
Additional Reading	xxv

Introduction

Chapter 1: The Historical, Educational and Moral Significance of the Holocaust	3
--	---

Part 1 The Background and Context

Chapter 2: Survey of Jewish History: c.300 BC to c.1700	27
Chapter 3: The European Jew and the Modern World	51
Chapter 4: Nazism and Modern Germany: From National Unification to Hitler's Accession to Power	80

Part 2 The Holocaust: a History

Chapter 5: Nazi Germany, 1933-8: Anti-Jewish Policy and Legislation	123
Chapter 6: Nazi Europe, 1938-41: From Kristallnacht to Ghettoization in the East	144
Chapter 7: The Holocaust, 1941-5: From Dehumanization to Annihilation	174

Part 3 Themes, Issues and Protagonists

Chapter 8: Perpetrators, Victims and Bystanders	199
Chapter 9: The Jewish Question: Public Opinion in Nazi Germany	242
Chapter 10: The Aftermath and Impact of the Holocaust	265
Notes	291
Bibliography	303
Appendix A Euphemisms of Death	317
Appendix B Yossel Rakover's Appeal to God	319
Appendix C The Jewish Question – Excerpts from Hitler's Writings	328
Appendix D The Programme of the National- Socialist German Workers' Party	337
Appendix E The Nuremberg Laws	341
Appendix F German Foreign Ministry Memorandum	344
Appendix G Numbers of Jews Murdered in Europe	348
Chronology of the Holocaust (1933–45)	349
Glossary of Basic Terms	362
Principal Characters	367
Index	374

Maps

The Jews of the Roman Empire, 100-300 AD	38–39
Expulsions, 1000-1500	46–47

Source: Martin Gilbert, Jewish History Atlas, (second edition, Weidenfeld & Nicolson 1976)