

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Chapter 1
APPROACHES TO PAUL'S FINANCIAL POLICY	1
1. Introduction	1
2. Reappraising Various Approaches	2
a. The Psychological Approach	3
b. The Economical Approach	4
c. The Moral/Ethical Approach	5
d. The Theological Approach	9
e. The Sociological Approach	11
3. Offering a Combined Alternative – A Socio-Theological Approach	19
a. Sociology and Theology – Friends or Foes?	20
b. The Nature of this Approach	21
c. The Anticipated Outcomes of this Approach	22
4. The Trajectory of this Study	23
Chapter 2
CONTEXTUALISING PAUL	25
1. Introduction	25
2. Paul's Socio-Economic Climate	26
a. Patronage, Benefaction, and Reciprocity: A Tangled Web of Complexity	26
b. Patterns of Reciprocal Exchange in the Ancient World	35
3. Paul's Ideological Climate: Patterns of Reciprocity in Seneca's De Beneficiis	41
a. Aberrations of Gift Exchange in Seneca's Ancient Economy	43
b. Seneca's Two-Level, Philosophical Framework: Paradox as a Solution	46
c. Seneca, Paul, and 'the Modern Myth of the Pure Gift'	53
4. Conclusion	57

Chapter 3

PAUL'S POSITIVE GIFT-GIVING RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PHILIPPIANS	58
1. Introduction	58
2. The History of Paul's Relationship with the Philippians	59
a. Evidence of a Positive Relationship from Acts	59
b. Evidence of a Positive Relationship from Philippians	60
c. Evidence of a Financial Relationship from Philippians	63
d. Paul's Circumstances in Prison	65
e. Conclusion	69
3. The Nature of Paul's Relationship with the Philippians	69
a. A Dysfunctional Relationship	70
b. A Roman Consensual Societas	71
c. A Friendship Relationship	73
d. Conclusion	78
4. Exegetical Investigation of Philippians 1.7 and 1.12-30	79
a. The Trajectory of Χάρις in the Gospel through their Κοινωνία	80
b. The Power of Χάρις in their Three-way Κοινωνία	93
5. Exegetical Investigation of Philippians 1.3-6, 2.25-30, and 4.10-20	98
a. Gifts from Philippi to Paul	99
b. Paul's Theological Figuring of the Philippians' Gift	103
c. The Relational Contours of Κοινωνία Reshaped by the Divine Third Party	115
6. Conclusion: Paul's Κοινωνία with the Philippians	128
a. The Inclusion of the Third Party	128
b. Social Dynamics of Giving and Receiving 'in Christ'	129
c. The Nature of Paul's Financial Relationship with the Philippians	130

Chapter 4

PAUL'S NEGATIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CORINTHIANS (PART I)	131
1. Introduction	131
2. The Social Ethos of Corinth	132
a. The City – Corinth's Legacy of Prosperity	132
b. The People – The Social Conventions of Wealth and Honour at Corinth	134
c. Conclusion	136
3. The Cultural Conformity of the Corinthians Post-Conversion	137
a. Conversion at Corinth	137
b. The Corinthians' Culturally Conditioned Lifestyle	140
c. Conclusion	149

4. Paul's Response to the Corinthians' Culturally Conditioned Lifestyle	150
a. An Appraisal of their High Spiritual Status	150
b. A Theological Reconfiguration of Roles and Status in the Divine Economy	153
c. Conclusion	159
5. The Socio-Theological Strategy behind Paul's Financial Policy	161
a. 1 Corinthians 9 – A Response to the Offer of a Gift or a Pre-Established Policy?	161
b. Paul's Financial Policy in Social Perspective	164
c. Paul's Financial Policy in Theological Perspective	167
6. Conclusion	177

Chapter 5

PAUL'S NEGATIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CORINTHIANS (PART II)	180
1. Introduction	180
2. Reconstruction of Events between 1 and 2 Corinthians	181
3. The Corinthians' Culturally Conditioned Lifestyle Maintained	183
a. A Corinthian Assessment of Apostolic Status	184
b. The Exploitative Gift-Giving Relationship of the Corinthians and the Super Apostles	188
4. The Gift-Giving Relationship (or Lack Thereof) between Paul and the Corinthians	191
a. Paul's Refusal of Corinthian Gifts	191
b. Paul's Καύχησις Never to Accept Corinthian Gifts	208
5. Conclusion	218

Chapter 6

CONCLUSION	219
1. Paul's Financial Policy in Socio-Theological Perspective	219
2. The Achieved Goals of the Socio-Theological Approach to Paul's Financial Policy	224
3. Implications for Further Study	226

Bibliography	227
Index of References	245
Index of Authors	255