

Contents

Acknowledgements XI

1 Commerce, Law and Evidence 1

1 Evidence of Commerce and Law 8

2 Commerce, Merchants and Homo Economicus 14

1 Ubiquity of Commerce and Trade 14

1.1 Hunters, Gatherers and Pre-Literate Farmers 14

1.2 Mesopotamia (3000–1600 BC) 26

1.3 Ancient Egypt (3000–1069 BC) 46

1.4 Classical Athens (480–330 BC) 63

1.5 Roman Republic and Empire (100 BC–200 AD) 68

1.6 Early Islamic World (750–1100 AD) 75

1.7 European Commercial Revolution (1000–1500 AD) 83

1.8 Medieval Southern India (850–1500 AD) 87

1.9 Early Qing China (1644–1800 AD) 97

2 Primacy of Commerce and Trade 109

3 Homo Economicus and Economic Analysis 115

3 Security of Persons and Property 118

1 Security in Local Markets 119

1.1 General Security Institutions 119

1.2 Local Security for Resident or Itinerant Foreign Merchants 122

2 Security in Long-Distance Trade (In Transit Security) 126

2.1 Fictional Blood Brother/Kin Relationships and Neutral Intermediaries 126

2.2 Silent Trade 126

2.3 Amân (Safe Passage) 128

2.4 Merchant Networks and Private Armies (Private Ordering) 128

2.5 Treaties and Commercial Agreements 129

2.6 Public Order 130

3 Security from State Invasions of Property 131

4 Concluding Remarks and Questions 133

4 Dispute Resolution 134

1 Introduction and General Legal Systems 135

1.1 Hunter/Gatherers and pre-Literate Farmers – Rules, Enforcement and Sanctions Whether “Law” or “Social Norms” 135

1.2	Mesopotamia – Innovative Law and Expansive Commerce and Trade	138
1.3	Egypt – Law in a Politically Centralized and Economically Dominant State	139
1.4	Athens – Law in a Radical Democracy	141
1.5	Rome – Law Supporting Commerce in an Empire	141
1.6	Early Islamic World – Law Based on Religious Community	144
1.7	Medieval Europe – Commercial and Legal Revolutions	147
1.8	Medieval Southern India – Law Based on Caste or Occupation	148
1.9	Qing China – Imperial Administrative Law and Private Contract Rules	151
2	Dispute Avoidance Institutions	152
3	Mediation and Arbitration	154
3.1	Public Mediation and Arbitration	155
3.2	Private Mediation and Arbitration	157
4	Dispute Resolution by Local Notables and Consuls	160
5	Dispute Resolution by Popular Assemblies and Executive Bodies	160
6	Courts	163
6.1	Independence and Appellate Review	163
6.2	Political Structure and Courts	167
6.3	Community-Based Legal Systems (Islamic and Hindu Law)	169
6.4	Demands for Speedy, Impartial and Experienced Dispute Resolution	173
7	Informal Dispute Resolution	179
8	Remedies and Community Responsibility	186
9	Substantive Rules, Legal Recognition of Business Innovations and Law(s) Merchant	189
9.1	Substantive Legal Rules	189
9.2	Legal Recognition of Business, Commercial and Financial Innovations	194
9.3	Uniform Substantive Rules and “Law(s) Merchant” – The Loch Ness of Legal History	199
5	Business Organizations: Families, Partnerships and Companies	206
1	Business Composition	207
1.1	Personal Relationships and Family Business	207
1.2	Family Networks	214
1.3	Multigenerational Business	215
1.4	Family versus the Individual	218

- 2 Business Organizations 220
 - 2.1 Modern Forms of Business Organization and Corporate Law Default Rules 220
 - 2.2 Partnerships for Single Projects 222
 - 2.3 Business Organizations to Pool Capital and Share Risk beyond Single Projects 228
 - 2.4 Forms of Organization to Partition Assets 250
- 3 Accounting, Credit and Financial Institutions 257
- 4 Conclusions 261

- 6 Consumer Protection, Competition, Fair Prices and Agency/Information Institutions 263
 - 1 Fair Dealing and Consumer Protection 264
 - 1.1 Ubiquity of Local Markets 264
 - 1.2 Fair Dealing and Consumer Protection 265
 - 2 Grain Trade: Regulation and Competition Laws 270
 - 2.1 Critical Importance of Grain 270
 - 2.2 Competition Laws 275
 - 3 “Unfair Prices” 281
 - 4 Institutions to Meet Agency Concerns 283
 - 5 Institutions to Provide Market Information 287

- Bibliography 291
- Index 327