

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	3
 Part I: Intervention and Peacekeeping
CHAPTER ONE: International Crises and Third-Party Functions
International Crises: Their Nature and Characteristics	9
Third-Party Intervention	25
 CHAPTER TWO: Third-Party Tactics: An Intervenor's Repertory of Practice
Mediatory and Conciliatory Actions	50
Positive and Independent Actions	61
Service Activities	68
 CHAPTER THREE: The Identity of the Third Party
Resources and Capabilities	80
Potential Intervenors	91
 CHAPTER FOUR: Three Images of United Nations Peacekeeping
The Charter System—Great-Power Solidarity	116
The Uniting for Peace Era—The United Nations and the Cold War	126
The Hammarskjöld Framework—Peacekeeping Despite the Cold War	135
An Emergent Pattern?	144
Some Comparisons of the Three Images	148

Part II: Applications

CHAPTER FIVE: United Nations Intervention in Soviet-American Crises

Introduction	159
The Soviet-American Confrontation	161
The Problem of Acceptability	173

CHAPTER SIX: A Roster of Superpower Crises

Prevention	206
Crisis Control	208
Intrawar Limitations	228
Restoration	246

CHAPTER SEVEN: Intervention by the Secretary-General and Secretariat: The Mustering of Capabilities

Focus on the Secretary-General and the Secretariat	263
Fulfillment of Requirements	271

CHAPTER EIGHT: Intervention by the Secretary-General and Secretariat: The Performance of Instrumental Activities

The Utilization of Instrumental Activities	310
A Résumé of Problems	335

Part III: Prospects for the Future

CHAPTER NINE: The Nature of Change and the Role of the Third Party

The Structure of the International System	350
Alignments and Patterns of Conflict	366
The Modalities of Coercion	382
Bibliography	401
Index	421