

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword, by Frederick S. Dunn | v |
| Translator's Preface | vii |
| Author's Preface | xi |
| Abbreviations | xvi |
| BOOK I | |
| POLITICAL POWER IN EXTERNAL RELATIONS FROM THE BEGINNINGS OF THE MODERN STATE TO THE PRESENT | |
| I. The Foundations of the Modern State—The Individualist Consequences of the New Distribution of Power | 3 |
| II. The Consolidation of the State—Growing Predominance of the Political since the Treaties of Westphalia | 22 |
| III. International Law from the Congress of Vienna to the First World War, 1815-1914 | 44 |
| IV. Between the Two World Wars, 1919-1939 | 53 |
| BOOK II | |
| GENERAL RELATIONS OF POWER AND LAW IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS | |
| I. The Political Fact: Its Criterion—Political Disputes. Political Tensions: Their Various Forms | 71 |
| II. Is There an "International Community"? | 88 |
| III. Sovereignty and International Organization | 101 |
| IV. The Human Ends of Power | 120 |
| BOOK III | |
| CONVERGENCES AND TENSIONS OF LAW AND POWER IN POSITIVE INTERNATIONAL LAW | |
| I. Social Factors and Political Factors in the Development of International Law | 133 |
| II. The State in the International Order | 166 |
| III. Inter-State Relations | 228 |
| IV. Peaceful Change | 308 |
| BOOK IV | |
| THE JUDICIAL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES | 327 |
| CONCLUSION | 362 |
| Index | 367 |