

Table of contents

List of tables and graphs.....	7
List of abbreviations.....	9
Introduction.....	13
Acknowledgements.....	23
Part I: Regional and Local Transitional Justice Efforts
Patrick Wegner
Regional and Local Perceptions of Justice and their Impact on International Investigations.....	27
Allan Rutambo Ngari
Dealing with the Legacy of Mass Atrocities in the Great Lakes – Rwanda, Burundi and the Democratic Republic of the Congo.....	49
Jan Hofmeyr
Restorative Justice in Post-Apartheid South Africa. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission and its Deferred Promise.....	71
Anna Grzywacz
Transitional Justice in East Timor: Timorese Political Pragmatism and its Effectiveness.....	81
Gjylbehare Bella Murati
A Surrogate State's Approach to Transitional Justice. The Kosovo Experience.....	93

Part II: International Criminal Tribunals and the Prosecution of Mass Atrocities

Klaus Bachmann

The Loathed Tribunal. Public Opinion in Serbia Toward the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia..... 113

Ana Ljubojević

The Vukovar and Ovčara Trials and Their Influence on Popular Narratives about the War in Croatia and Serbia 135

Allan Rutambo Ngari

Foreign Judicial Intervention and the Media – The Case of the ICC and Kenya..... 145

Patrycja Grzebyk

International Tribunals' Selective Justice towards African States..... 161

Part III: The International Community and the Prevention of Mass Atrocities

Isabelle Tallec

The Role of International Criminal Justice in French Foreign Policy..... 181

Agnieszka Bieńczyk-Missala

Early Warning and the Prevention of Atrocity Crimes:
The Role of the United Nations..... 199

Dorota Heidrich

Responsibility to Protect – a Tool for Atrocity Crimes Prevention? 217

Bibliography 237

The authors..... 253

Index of Names..... 257