

CONTENTS

Preface xiii

Acknowledgments xvii

I Introduction to Communication Ethics 1

Reasoning about Communication Ethics 3

Definitions 6

Communication Ethics and Integrity 7

The “Inconvenience” of Integrity and Ethics 7

Playing the Game 8

The Scope of Communication Ethics 9

Questions and Topics for Discussion 11

Notes 11

PART ONE Theories and Perspectives 13

2 Character in Communication and Virtue Ethics 15

Background of Virtue Ethics 17

The Art of Communication and Ethics 18

Aristotle: The Foundation for Communication Theory and Ethics 20

The Rhetoric 20

The Ethics 22

Contemporary Virtue Ethics 26

Implications for Communication Ethics 28

Courage in Ethical Communication 29

Case Study: Comparing Apples to Hammers 31

Questions for Analysis of the Case 33

Chapter Summary 34

Questions and Topics for Discussion 35

Notes 35

3 Duties 37

Is Lying Always Wrong? 37

The Basis for Kant's Universalism: The Categorical Imperative 40

Other Universal Ethics of Communication 42

Divine Command 42

Human Nature 44

Alternatives to Universal Rules Systems 47

Situational Ethics 48

Cultural Relativism 50

Modern Trends: Jürgen Habermas and Discourse Ethics 53

Case Study: Oskar Schindler, the Righteous Gentile 56

Questions for Analysis of the Case 57

Chapter Summary 57

Questions and Topics for Discussion 58

Notes 59

4 Consequences 61

Utilitarianism 62

Foundations of Utilitarian Ethics 63

Implications of Utilitarian Ethics 65

Variants on Utilitarianism 69

Ethical Egoism 69

Ethical Altruism 72

Highlights of Utilitarian Ethical Systems 73

Egalitarianism and Social Justice Theories 74

Background to Egalitarianism: The Social Contract 75

Rawls: The Ethics of Social Justice 76

Scanlon and Reasonable Obligations to Others 79

Highlights of Egalitarianism 83

Case Study: Surveillance at Sizgie Corporation	83
Questions for Analysis of the Case	84
Chapter Summary	85
Questions and Topics for Discussion	86
Notes	86

5 Relationships 88

The Game: Survivor	88
Dialogical Ethics	90
Foundations of Dialogical Ethics	91
Martin Buber: I and Thou	91
Implications of Buber's Ethics of Dialogue	93
Carl Rogers: Unconditional Positive Regard	94
Emmanuel Levinas: The Other	96
Paulo Freire: The Ethics of Empowerment	99
Case Study: The Summer in France	101
Questions for Analysis of the Case	102
Chapter Summary	102
Questions and Topics for Discussion	104
Notes	104

6 Contemporary Challenges 105

Postmodern Perspectives	107
Modern versus Postmodern	109
Domination versus Emancipation	111
Implications for Communication Ethics	115
The Feminist Critique of Traditional Ethics	118
Overview of Feminist Positions	118
The Ethics of Care	120
Responses to the Ethics of Care	123
Implications for Communication Ethics	124
Case Study: The Prodigal Child	127
Questions for Analysis of the Case	128

Chapter Summary	128
Questions and Topics for Discussion	130
Notes	131

PART TWO Issues, Settings, and Applications 133

Applied and Professional Ethics	134
---------------------------------	-----

7 Ethics in Interpersonal Communication: Relationship and Character 137

The Nature of Interpersonal Communication	139
---	-----

The Ethics of Dialogue in Interpersonal Communication	141
---	-----

Principles from Dialogical Ethics	141
-----------------------------------	-----

Conflict in Interpersonal Communication	143
---	-----

Ethical Communication in Interpersonal Relationships: Character Counts	144
--	-----

Trust and Manipulation in Interpersonal Relationships	146
---	-----

The Ethics of Self-Disclosure	148
-------------------------------	-----

The Ethical Dilemma of Self-Disclosure	149
--	-----

Case Study: Should She Tell?	150
------------------------------	-----

Questions for Analysis of the Case	152
------------------------------------	-----

Chapter Summary	153
-----------------	-----

Questions and Topics for Discussion	154
-------------------------------------	-----

Notes	154
-------	-----

8 Ethics and the Communication of Diversity 155

Elements of Diversity	156
-----------------------	-----

Intercultural Communication	158
-----------------------------	-----

The Concept of Culture	158
------------------------	-----

Cultural Rules of Communication	159
---------------------------------	-----

Reservations about Cultural Rules of Communication	162
--	-----

Ethical Perspectives on Intercultural Communication 163

Coordinated Management of Meaning Theory 164

Dialogical Communication 166

Third-Culture Building 166

Communication and People with Disabilities 167

People-First Language 168

Dialogical Ethics Applied to Disabilities 170

Rawls: Contemporary Social Justice 171

Kant's Deontological Ethics and Disabilities 173

Applications: Tolerance and Diversity: Hate Speech and Political Correctness 173

Case Study: Security and Tolerance 178

Questions for Analysis of the Case 180

Chapter Summary 180

Questions and Topics for Discussion 182

Notes 183

9 Ethical Issues in Mass Communication 184

The Field of the Media and Mass Communication 186

Defining Mass Media and Mass Communication 186

Categories and Types of Mass Media 187

Overview of Ethical Problems in Mass Communication 188

Fundamental Ethical Issues in Media Ethics 188

Ethical Issues in Mass Communication 190

The Gatekeeping Function: Framing Our View of the World 192

Stereotypes in the Media 195

Accuracy and Truth in the Media 198

Applications of Ethical Principles to Mass Media 204

Model for Ethical Decision Making in Mass Communication 204

Dialogical Ethics for Mass Communication 206

Case Study: Embedded in Miami 208

Questions for Analysis of the Case 209

Chapter Summary	209
Questions and Topics for Discussion	211
Notes	212

10	Ethics of Political Communication	214
	The Practices of Political Communication	217
	Impact of Media and Marketing	219
	Impact of PACs	221
	The Role of Political Consultants	225
	The Role of Lobbyists	228
	Framework for Ethical Political Communication	231
	Rawls' Perspective	232
	Habermas and the Ideal Speech Situation	234
	Virtue Ethics and Political Communication	235
	Utilitarian Ethics and Political Communication	236
	Case Study: Public and Private Information	236
	Questions for Analysis of the Case	237
	Chapter Summary	238
	Questions and Topics for Discussion	239
	Notes	240

11	Ethics in Organizational Communication	242
	Overview of Concerns in Organizational Communication	244
	Ethical Issues in Organizational Communication	247
	Impact on Community and Society	248
	Responsibility to Stakeholders and Community	248
	Risk Communication: Public Health and Safety	251
	Business and Financial Reporting	254
	Impact on Organizational Members	255
	Safe and Healthy Work Environment	257
	Issues of Privacy and Surveillance	258
	Rights of Whistle-blowers	261

Corporate Democracy and Quality of Life	262
Diversity in the Organization	264
Impact on the Organization	266
The Case of Whistle-blowing	266
Individual Responsibility and Corporate Environment	269
Ethical Vantage Points for Issues in Organizational Communication	270
Dialogical Communication Ethics	270
Rawls and Habermas	271
Utilitarianism	272
Case Study: Good Business or Bribery?	273
Questions for Analysis of the Case	274
Chapter Summary	275
Questions and Topics for Discussion	276
Notes	276

12	Ethics and Online Communication	279
	The Changing Face of Online Communication	280
	Characteristics of Online Communication	282
	The World as Audience: All Communication is Public	282
	All Communication is Permanent	282
	Perceived Anonymity	283
	Instant Access and Feedback	284
	Major Ethical Issues in Online Communication	285
	Privacy and Confidentiality	285
	Deception and Manipulation	286
	Abusive Communication	287
	Discrimination: Bigotry Online	289
	Ethical Framework for Digital Communication	291
	Dialogical Ethics Online	292
	Scanlon's Perspective: Obligations to Others	295
	Case Study: Shared Trouble	298
	Questions for Analysis of the Case	299
	Chapter Summary	299

Questions and Topics for Discussion 300

Notes 301

13 Capstone 302

Teaching and Learning Ethics: Can It Be Done? 303

 The Game Revisited 304

 Ethical Equilibrium in Communication 305

Challenges and Issues for Further Studies in

Communication Ethics 306

 Health Communication 306

 Religious Communication 307

 Environmental Communication 309

 Education Communication 309

Topic for Discussion: A Personal Code of Ethics 311

Credo for Ethical Communication 311

 A Personal Code of Communication Ethics 313

A Final Word 314

 A Last Look at Dialogue 315

Notes 316

Glossary 317

Selected Bibliography 321

Index 329