

CONTENTS

Dedication & Caution	v
Foreword	vii
Acknowledgements	xiv
Permissions	xvii
Maps of Wirrimanu (Balgo) and the Kutjungka Region	xx
Preface	xxii
 A Day in the Life of the Tjilimi	 1
 Caring for Yawulyu , Singing the Land
Caring for Yawulyu , Singing the Land	12
Kapululangu's Quest	13
The Kapululangu Tjilimi as a Living Environment	14
The Tjilimi Walytja	16
The Tjilimi as a Centre of Ritual	18
Revitalising Culture – Addressing the Future	21
The Potency of Yawulyu , Women's Law	26
The Tjilimi and Women's Kurrumpa Maya	32
Cultural Imperative, Cultural Right	35
 Living on the Ground
Becoming the Culture Woman	39
Living as the Culture Woman	42
Researching White Culture as a Culture Woman	46
A Respectful Research Methodology	49

Exploring the Languages of the Body	52
Recreating Whiteness	56
Becoming The Missus	60
White Culture Shock: The Kartiya Dirt Syndrome	63
Cultural Collisions	68
Attitudes to Violence: Prime Terrain for Culture Collision	72
Cultural Challenges	75

Wirrimanu's White Story

Wirrimanu's Chronicles	76
Locating Wirrimanu	77
The First White Strangers	79
A Catholic Mission in the Desert	79
The Government Takes an Interest	83
Balgo Becomes a Thriving Settlement	84
A New Balgo Mission Established	86
Early Bureaucratic Frameworks	89
Balgo Mission is Closed	93
Bureaucratic and Fiscal Entanglements	99
Political Threats to Close Wirrimanu	106
Administrative Attempts to Secure Wirrimanu's Future	108
Whites Battle for Political Power as Wirrimanu Collapses	110
The Legacy of Political Upheaval	117
The Chairman's Stand Against White Politics	118

The Missionaries and the Tjukurrpa's Embrace

The Missionary Struggle for Indigenous Soul, Mind and Body	124
Christianity and the Tjukurrpa's Continuance	133
Ritual Resurgence	135
Indigenisation: The Church Responds to Ritual Resurgence	140
Inclusion of Indigenous Culture or Christian Evangelism?	146

Bi-Cultural Education Replaced by Christian Enculturation	153
Cultural Resistance	158

Kapululangu: The Women Elders' Cultural Initiative

Kimberley Women Law Bosses Reclaim Their Voices	160
Kapululangu's Predecessor: The Desert Women's Project	163
Manungka Manungka: the Continuing Obstacles of White Politics	176
Kapululangu and the Politics of White Culture	182
Attempts to Gain a Coordinator's Salary, Office and Residence	187
Designing the Tjilimi House to Suit Whitefella Living	188
Kapululangu's Persistent Success	191

Living Culture – The Cultural Imperative

Living Culture, Cultural Renewal	194
The Living Land and the Gift of Ritual	195
The Integrity of Cultural Ritual	200
Taming the Singing Voice	202
The Frozen Word	204
Sand, Ochre and the Invasion of Acrylic	206
Fragmenting the Integrity of Ritual	211
The Commodification of Culture	213
The Culture Industry	218
Museumising Living Culture	221
Women's Centres as Centres of Women's Cultural Power	227
Trauma Trails and the Kapululangu Experience	231
Living Culture is Culture Lived	238

White Culture and Black Women's Law

Cultural Colonisation and Cultural Resistance	240
The Tjilimi and Indigenous Women's Resistance	243

The Warlayirti Culture Centre	245
The Episode at the Tjilimi Gate	249
What Happened at the Tjilimi Gate?	255
Kapululangu's New Coordinators	262
The Fate of the 'Strong Culture – Strong Families' Project	263
Shifting Kapululangu's Emphasis	267
Redirecting Kapululangu's Resources	269
Kapululangu's Support for the Warlayirti Culture Centre	270
Looking Back: A Three Year Review	271
Kurrumpa Maya: Women's Spiritual Strength and Kapululangu
Women's Creative Acts of Passionate Resistance	273
Taking Responsibility for White Culture	277
Fire Politics: A Kapululangu Vision	282
My Return to Kapululangu	288
Keeping Doing the Dancing: The Kapululangu Elders' Cultural Imperative	291
Endnotes	295
Glossary	319
Bibliography	324
Index	368