

CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations	ix
List of Illustrations and Tables	xi

INTRODUCTION: Ebola	I
---------------------	---

PART ONE: COLONIAL ENTANGLEMENTS 13

1 Colonial Training Grounds	17
2 From Colonial to International Health	32

PART TWO: SOCIAL MEDICINE, THE DEPRESSION, AND RURAL HYGIENE 47

3 The League of Nations Health Organization	51
4 Internationalizing Rural Hygiene and Nutrition	66

PART THREE: CHANGING POSTWAR VISIONS OF HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT 89

5 Planning for a Postwar World: The Legacy of Social Medicine	91
6 A Narrowing Vision: International Health, Technology, and Cold War Politics	105

PART FOUR: THE ERA OF ERADICATION 133

7 Uncertain Beginnings	137
8 The Good and the Bad Campaigns	152

PART FIVE: CONTROLLING THE WORLD'S POPULATIONS 181

9 The Birth of the Population Crisis	187
--------------------------------------	-----

10	Accelerating International Family-Planning Programs	204
11	Rethinking Family Planning	215
PART SIX: THE RISE AND FALL OF PRIMARY HEALTH CARE		227
12	Rethinking Health 2.0: The Rise of Primary Health Care	231
13	Challenges to Primary Health Care	249
PART SEVEN: BACK TO THE FUTURE		267
14	AIDS and the Birth of Global Health	273
15	The Global Fund, PEPFAR, and the Transformation of Global Health	289
16	Medicalizing Global Health	305
CONCLUSION: Responding to Ebola		329
Acknowledgments		343
Notes		345
Index		395