

Contents

Notes on contributors	v
Acknowledgements	ix
Series editors' preface	x
one Introduction Stephen Katz	1
Part 1: Materialities	23
Part 1: introduction Stephen Katz	25
two Things and possessions David J. Ekerdt	29
three Reinventing the nursing home: metaphors that design care Susan Braedley	45 four The ever-breaking wave of everyday life: animating ageing movement-space Gavin J. Andrews and Amanda M. Grenier	63
five What's exotic about The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel? Cinema, everyday life and the materialisation of ageing Sally Chivers	83
six Between ageing and ageism: portrayals of online dating in later life in Canadian print media Julia Rozanova, Mineko Wada and Laura Hurd Clarke	99
Part 2: Embodiments	123
Part 2: introduction Stephen Katz	125
seven Closer to touch: sexuality, embodiment and masculinity in older men's lives Linn J. Sandberg	129 eight Ageing bodies, driving and change: exploring older body-driver fit in the high-tech automobile Jessica A. Gish, Amanda M. Grenier and Brenda Vrkljan	145
nine Dancing with dementia: citizenship, embodiment and everyday life in the context of long-term care Pia Kontos and Alisa Grigorovich	163

Ageing in everyday life

ten	Why clothes matter: the role of dress in the everyday lives of older people Julia Twigg	181 eleven	Our Fitbits, our (ageing) selves: wearables, self-tracking and ageing embodiment Barbara L. Marshall	197 twelve	Afterword. Relational entanglements: ageing, materialities and embodiments Kim Sawchuk	215
Index		225