

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xv
Introduction	1

I

Disability and Spirituality: Each Leads to the Other

1 Naming and Defining Disability A Brief History	9
2 Disability From Definition, Diagnosis, and Assessment to Meaning	25
3 Spirituality From Meaning to Disability	43

II

Spirituality in the Lives of Individuals with Disabilities

4 Spirituality in the Lives of Individuals with Disabilities	65
5 Spiritual Development and Formation From Child to Adult	85

6	Spirituality and the Transition to Adulthood	101
7	Spirituality, Aging, and End of Life A Paradox of Loss and Celebration	119

III

Spirituality and Families

8	Spirituality and Families Beginnings and Journeys	137
9	Respite Care A Sabbath for (and from) Caregivers	159

IV

Spirituality and Professionals

10	Integrating Spirituality in Professional Services and Roles	175
11	Spirituality, Care, and Commitment	195

V

All of Us: Friendships, Relationships, and Community

12	Gift and Call Recovering the Spiritual Dimensions of Friendship	213
13	Relationships Are Not Easy Challenging Behaviors, Positive Behavior Supports, and Spirituality	231
14	Spirituality, Diversity, and Community Moving toward Belonging	247

	Conclusion Restoring Wholeness—It Is about All of Us	267
--	--	-----

	Notes	287
--	-------	-----

	Bibliography	315
--	--------------	-----

	Index	333
--	-------	-----