

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Introduction Maritza I. Espina, Phillip H. Phan and Gideon D. Markman	1
PART I THEORETICAL APPROACHES TO SUSTAINABLE ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH
1 Environmental dystopia versus sustainable development utopia: roles of businesses, consumers, institutions, and technologies Duane Windsor	9
2 The entrepreneurial journey of Geely's founder: from institutional voids to opportunity discovery Michael Zhang	25
3 Contradictory stakeholder expectations for sustainability reporting – a social contract theory approach Kristiina Joensuu, Marileena Mäkelä and Tiina Onkila	39
PART II CLIMATE CHANGE
4 The political economy of climate change and sustainable entrepreneurship Phillip Bruner, Richard Harrison and Dan Van der Horst	65
5 Breaking traditions: how entrepreneurs create communities to address climate change Katharina Kaesehage and Michael Leyshon	102
6 Water rights in California: competition and coopetition in a dynamic environment Richard Thomas Herko, H. Drew Fountaine and Lee Katz	135

PART III SOCIAL INNOVATION PROCESSES

- | | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 7 | Social entrepreneurs and field-level change: an institutional process model of social entrepreneurship
Yusi W. Turell and Andrew G. Earle | 153 |
| 8 | “Make love, not war?” – a process-based approach to social innovation
Renaud Defiebre-Muller, Federico Ignacio Viola, Pauline Fatien Diochon and Sebastian Duenas Ocampo | 190 |
| 9 | Social innovation: combining profits and progress
Matthias A. Tietz, Sondos Gamaleldin Sobhy Abdelgawad and Martina Pasquini | 208 |

PART IV THE ETHICS OF SOCIAL INNOVATION

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 10 | Bioethical reasoning and the propensity of millennials to adopt sustainable development behaviors
Silvia López Paláu and Beatriz Rivera-Cruz | 227 |
| 11 | Sustainable consumption practice: the effect of eco-friendly packaging on buying behavior based on generations
Melissa Cortina-Mercado and Rafael Cortina-Cruz | 256 |
| | Bibliography | 267 |
| | Index | 313 |