

CONTENTS

| | | |
|----------|---|-----|
| I | Introduction | 1 |
| | 1.1 Objects in Focus | 1 |
| | 1.2 The Exhibitionary Routine | 5 |
| | 1.3 Scope of the Study | 11 |
| | 1.4 Research Context | 15 |
| | 1.5 Structure of the Analysis | 21 |
| 2 | Between the Material and the Immaterial | 25 |
| | 2.1 Broken Glass | 25 |
| | 2.2 Objects as Signifiers and Fragments | 30 |
| | 2.3 Mentalities, Experiences, Emotions—and Objects | 41 |
| | 2.4 Object Life Cycles | 53 |
| 3 | Material Experiences, 1933–45 | 65 |
| | 3.1 Jews and Heimat: Objects and Belonging | 65 |
| | 3.2 Mentalities and Materials | 80 |
| | 3.3 Hitler Busts and Nazi Symbols | 98 |
| | 3.4 Material Economies and Sign Systems of the Camps | 107 |
| | 3.5 Material Experiences of the Non-persecuted Majority in Wartime | 125 |

| | | |
|----------|--|-----|
| 4 | Material Collapse, 1945 | 143 |
| 4.1 | The Sortie de Guerre: Objects Caught in Time | 144 |
| 4.2 | Vandalism, Disposal and Recycling | 150 |
| 4.3 | New Material Beginnings for the Victims | 162 |
| 5 | Material After-Lives Between the Attic and the Archive | 171 |
| 5.1 | Hitler in the Attic, in the Museum: How the Domestic Spaces of the Majority Culture Have Yielded Up Objects | 173 |
| 5.2 | Hiding in Plain Sight: Remnants of National Socialism in the Public Sphere | 192 |
| 5.3 | Resurfacing and Restitution: Victims' Objects After 1945 | 205 |
| 5.4 | Survival Among Objects | 223 |
| 5.5 | Michael Köhlmeier's Story 'Der Silberlöffel': 'Aryanized' Objects in the Liberal Imagination | 236 |
| 5.6 | Coming to Terms with the Coming to Terms | 247 |
| 5.7 | Life Goes on in the Museum: The Continuation of the Object Life Cycle | 263 |
| 6 | Conclusion | 275 |
| | Bibliography | 279 |
| | Index | 295 |